Platforms for Operations	Title	Description	Usage	Cost	Funding
	Canvas	Canvas is a Learning Management System that includes an assessment management system, contains data analytics for teachers to inform instruction, provides feedback loops for students and serves as a communication tool with families.	Canvas was launched in elementary last year and will expand to a secondary pilot in the 2021-2022. Trainings were held throughout the pandemic, during the certificated summer institute, and will cotinue to be held by our Technology Instructional Specialist through the school year.	$68,640.00	Gen. fund.
	DTS	Document Tracking System is a tool that enables principals and District Management to compose and colloborate on SPSAs, LCAP, and Safety Plans	All principals, District Administrators, and Fiscal Directors use this tool to compose, review, and revise school plans (SPSAs), Comprehensive Safety Plans, and the District's LCAP	$5,000	Supplemental
	Empower	Empower Learning is an education technology platform to enhance instruction in the K12 classroom. It is a tool for teachers to integrate technology in the classroom.	Empower started off as part of the Academy of Success and was utilized by DPHS and SMHS. Empower was not able to be used to its full potential due to the hybrid learning situation. A plan to ramp up usage for 2021-2022 and expand to all 3 high schools is in place.	$9,175.00	Gen. Fund
	Cypher Learning	NEO is a learning management system utilized by secondary schools. NEO is an online learning platform that helps schools manage all classroom activities, such as creating and delivering educational content, assessing students, tracking their results, and promoting communication and collaboration between students and teachers/faculty.	Teachers, students, and families in grades 7-12 utilize NEO to post assignments, turn-in assignments, and share grades and student data. This is a heavily utilized platform by stakeholders.	$78,960.00	Gen. Fund.

Platforms for Operations	Title	Description	Usage	Cost	Funding
	Follett SO	Destiny is the system librarians use to manage and track all instructional and supplemental materials. This system allows librarians to checkout and back in text books, teacher editions, individual libriary books.	All school libraries use this platform to checkout text books and books to students. It serves as an inventory management and distribution platform.	$34,566.88	Gen. Fund
	Zendesk	Zendesk is a support ticketing platform that allows customers to request support from service teams, such as technology support.	Both Educational Technology Services (ETS) and our Educational Services Language Access Unit (LAU) use Zendesk to track support requests. Students, families, and staff request technical support from ETS via Zendesk, and ETS uses Zendesk to track all technical issues through Zendesk to ensure timely resolution. Staff request translation and interpretation support from LAU through Zendesk, and LAU uses Zendesk to ensure timely responses.	$19,983.60	General Unrestricted Funds
	Zoom	Zoom provides web meeting and web conferencing functionality.	All certificated staff and some classified staff have access to meet with students, families, and other staff via Zoom in order to efficiently conduct remote meetings. Additionally, we use Zoom to conduct webinars with the community, such as Board meetings and updates to entire school communities.	$54,425.00	CARES III